THE TELEGRAM-HERALD'S EDITORIAL A HOORBACK.

Mr. Ford Points Out Its Misrepresentation of His Record in the Direct Tax Bill Headlock.

EDITOR MORNING PRESS—I ask the privilege of your columns for the purpose of refuting a wanton and gross misrepresentation of my votes upon the direct tax bill which you published.

During the present campaign certain newspapers have stated that while in congress I voted against the bill which purported to refer to the states the direct tax collected to pay the war debt.

I stated the facts in my speech at Fenwick last Tuesday, and said that I had decided when the bill was first up for consideration, and including the final vote on its passage, I had voted 24 times in favor of the bill, and motions looking to its consideration.

The same morning of this morning in an article headed "Filling Brains," pretends to give a copy of the Congressional Record containing my votes upon this measure. It uses this language: "There is a considerable discrepancy between the record of the vote of the referring bill, giving his every vote in chronological order."

This excerpt from the Record is so garbled, so evidently prepared in the interest of falsehood rather than the truth, that I am amazed that a journal avowedly devoted to the truth should have always had the highest respect which is due to the truth.

While pretending to give a correct record of my action they have omitted 23 votes that I cast in favor of the bill, which are plainly set forth in the Record and are facts. The direct tax bill came up for consideration, Mr. E. Taylor, of Ohio, introduced a bill, charged by Mr. Bates of Alabama and others. In my speeches I have stated that I voted in favor of the bill.

The opponents of the bill were urged to have the house adjourn, which would prevent the bill from coming to a vote. I voted to keep the house in session in order to carry out the bill.

Vol. 10, Cong. Record, 50th congress, 1st session. I voted for a resolution fixing a day for the consideration of the direct tax bill, page 2633.

On the 10th day of December for its consideration arrived. Foran, of Ohio, announced it, by moving to take up general consideration. The bill was defeated. I voted in the negative, which was in favor of the bill, page 2632.

April 4, 1887. It was moved that the house go into committee of the whole to consider the direct tax bill. The previous question was carried. I voted page 2702.

It was then moved by the opponents of the bill to reconsider the vote whereby the previous question was ordered, pending the adjournment of the house. I voted in favor of the motion to reconsider on the 10th day. Carried. I voted page 2703.

It was then moved that the bill be reconsidered. Mr. Taylor moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the 10th day. Carried. I voted page 2704.

Then the question recurred in Mr. Taylor's motion to go into committee of the whole. Mr. Oates moved to take a recess on 3 o'clock. Lost. I voted page 2705.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

Eva Mountford, the brilliant young star will open her engagement at the Lyceum theatre this evening in Frederick Soule's new drama, "The People's Choice." The actress and her play the Dramatic News had the following to say at the beginning of the season: "Miss Eva Mountford made her debut on Monday night, and she is a brilliant debut. The play was 'Eugenie Le Tour,' in which Miss Mountford appeared in the title role.

The drama is, as its title indicates, from the French, and is of the romantic school. The plot deals with the sufferings of a young girl who is accused of poisoning her aunt to inherit her property. The star made ample success. Eugenie, the heroine, investing the part with great power and pathos. The enthusiasm of the audience was so great, and the lady responded to recall after recall. Miss Mountford is a very handsome young woman, and her beauty was set off by some elegant costumes.

Madame Janusack is recognized as the leading tragedienne of today and her appearance here this week is creating much interest. She is a native of Poland, and her dramatic talents are well known. The engagement promises to be an interesting one, as the repertoire is sufficiently varied and of more than ordinary merit. Her first performance was on Thursday last, and she was well received.

TRAGEDY AT ST. PAUL.

Horrible Work With a Double-Barreled Shotgun.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 2.—In South St. Paul this morning George Robards, a farmer, shot and instantly killed Benjamin Smith, a well-known citizen, and injured Rogers, Jr., and then blew out his own brains. The tragedy caused the greatest excitement on account of the prominence of the parties and the lack of any known cause for the killing.

Robards then began to realize that as his crime became known he would be hounded by the press and the public. He took off his clothing except his trousers and shirt, he went out and fired the double-barreled gun under his chin, with his great toe he pulled the trigger, and the double barrel shot him through the head, killing him as if it had been done with a knife.

BITS OF BASE BALL.

ANSON'S LEAGUE TEAM AS MADE UP FOR NEXT YEAR.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—With the base ball magnates are talking about a treaty of peace, Captain Anson is going ahead with the work of securing a team for the next season, irrespective of what may be done by the National League.

Robards then began to realize that as his crime became known he would be hounded by the press and the public. He took off his clothing except his trousers and shirt, he went out and fired the double-barreled gun under his chin, with his great toe he pulled the trigger, and the double barrel shot him through the head, killing him as if it had been done with a knife.

SUNDAY NIGHT DRUNKS.

A PAIR OF THEM GATHERED IN BY POLICE.

Geo. Terborgh and Charles Vandermulder, filled with a promiscuous assortment of Sunday drinks, met in George Bowen's basement saloon last night, and were taken to the police station for an assortment of liquor refreshments. A dispute arose, and from Terborgh's statement the officers at the police headquarters, it seems a number of persons were assembled, and Terborgh that they all pitched on to him and tried to steal his watch. Patrolman Mally thought the best place for Terborgh was behind the bars, and he was locked up in a minute.

IRISH PATRIOTS GIVE A HEARTY WELCOME IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—John Dillon, M. P., of the United Kingdom, and Mr. O'Brien, J. D. Sullivan, M. P., and Mr. Sullivan, and Timothy Harrington, M. P., Irish patriots, arrived here for the winter on the steamer Champana. A reception committee of various Irish societies met the patriots at quarantine. At 11:30 the reception committee and their guests were taken to the hotel.

COUNTY HOOP-KEEPING.

THE TELEGRAM-HERALD MISREPRESENTS THE FACTS ABOUT REJECTED TAXPAYER'S COMPLAINT.

EDITOR MORNING PRESS—Supervisor Clements, in making his report to the board of supervisors relative to rejected tax-payers, recommended that the county treasurer be authorized to return to the various townships and wards such sums as each may be entitled to for money advanced into the county treasurer for the year last.

SECOND HAND SHOES.

WHERE THEY COME FROM, WHERE THEY ARE SOLD AND WHY THEY COST SO MUCH.

They are generally in the neighborhood of second hand clothing stores, but are distinct from them. Sometimes, however, bargains in second hand shoes may be had in the neighborhood of second hand clothing stores, but are distinct from them.

DRUM BURNED HIM.

A DRUNKEN BARGLAR CAUGHT IN A BARBER SHOP.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—John V. Waldee caught a barber shop, and what money he had left he invested in razors, four pairs of shears, two bottles of bay rum and four razors. There is just one drop left in the shop today, and the barber would like to lay it heavily on the line.

PUBLIC OPINION.

SOME LITTLE ABOUT I WANTED THE MISLEADING STATEMENT OF THE INTERESTED PARTIES IN THE PETTY DEGRADATIONS, AND NOW ONE OF THEM IS LEADING THE PATH OF UNHAPPINESS WHICH BREDS WRONG-DOING TO THE GREATEST EXTENT.

A DEMOCRATE EDITOR SIMPLY WROTE UP WHAT HE THOUGHT THEY OUGHT TO HAVE SAID.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The highly exalting remarks about Grover Cleveland, attributed to Chauncey M. Depew, in a report which has been reported with explanation points, and joyful comment by all the papers favorable to Cleveland, have led to a very interesting article by one of our opponents, Mr. Cleveland, and his political ideas, were not uttered by Mr. Depew. The language put in the mouth of Mr. Depew in this way is not the elevation of his friend, General Roger Pryor, to the bench.

TRUE TEMPERANCE TALK.

REV. P. MOEDRYK GIVES POLITICIANS SOME SOUND ADVICE.

AT GOOD TEMPLAR'S HALL, McMillen Park, yesterday afternoon Rev. P. Moedryk, a Polish priest, addressed a large audience. He did not, however, deliver a tirade against any man or set of men, but calmly and dispassionately pointed out the errors of the politicians.

THE POOL WILL PAY.

PROHIBITIONISTS CAN TELL THEIR OWN TALES.

Speaking of the effect of the McKinley bill upon wines and liquors, William Kortlandt, of the New York Herald, said to a Morning Star reporter the other day: "There is no longer any question that the price of liquors will soon advance. The increased duty on all imported brandy, gin, Irish and Scotch whiskeys, and cognacs, will be 20 cents per proof gallon."

HART, Nov. 1.—[Special Correspondent.]—The place is jubilant over the fact that yesterday received the appointment as cadet for the military school at West Point at the examination held at the college at Olivet and it is not known just how well he will do.

PHIL ARMOUR AT THE HEAD OF A GIGANTIC SCHEME.

A MANUFACTURING CENTER TO BE BUILT UPON THE CALUMET RIVER. THE DETAILS OF HIS PLAN.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—It has just been made public that negotiations which have been pending over the Calumet River have been completed for the purchase of some 3,000 acres of land on miles south of this city, on which to found a great manufacturing town. The men interested in the scheme are the great packing firm of P. D. Armour & Co., Swift & Co. and Nelson, Morris & Co. Mr. Armour represents the greatest packing house in the world. Some time ago he concluded that the stock yards were not the best location for his business, and when the Stock Yards company reincorporated recently he decided finally upon a change. He interested the other firms in the project, and as a result the land was purchased for $2,000,000, or about $75 an acre. The entire business of these large firms will be conducted from the new site which at present looks like a barren sandy waste. It includes the transfer of business interests involving transactions of at least $150,000,000 per year. The business of Armour & Co. will be worth $100,000,000, while the other firms will add enough to this to make a total of $150,000,000, which is a large sum of money. The plan is to build a canal from the southeast of Chicago's court house. It fronts four miles on Lake Michigan and eight miles on the Calumet River. The river is to be brought through it for its entire extent. The Baltimore and Ohio and the Michigan Central will be connected at Tolleston, adjoining it on the south. The junction of the Fort Wayne and the Michigan Central will be at Tolleston, a quarter of a mile, is called by the government navigable canal, and is dredged with little expense, and now is from six to ten feet deep.

The Tribune further says: "When the United States was painfully climbing back to a gold basis there was a basis of gold that we strove to reach."

There need not have been any painful climb to a gold basis even now, if we had the nation demonstrated to be forever one and indivisible, the legal tender treasury note that had fought her way through its terrible years for its basis the national wealth.

A COMPLICATED AFFAIR.

Statement of an Employee of Eaton, Lyon & Co. "It was some three years ago that my trouble began, I think." The speaker was Mr. Martin Ribben who resided at No. 111 Jefferson avenue, and who is employed at E. St. John, Lyon & Allen Printing Co.

"At first it was only annoying," he continued, "my head would stop up and I was continually catching cold. There would be quite a discharge from my nose and I was seldom free from a dull heavy pain over my eyes. Sometimes this would extend back of my ears. The mucous would keep dripping into my throat which would keep me continually hacking and spitting.

"After my trouble I began to be annoyed by a cough. My stomach became deranged. My food seemed to do me no good and I had an uncomfortable feeling of fullness or pain in my stomach after meals. Although I slept fairly well, I did not seem to feel refreshed and I have often gone to my work in the morning more tired than when I went to bed.

"None of the different remedies I tried seemed to do me any good. ... I called at his office at 41 Lagave street and placed myself in his care. The result has been most satisfactory to me. I improved from the start. My nose became clear and my headache left me. My appetite is good and I have no more pain in my stomach after eating. I feel grateful for what the Doctor has done for me. I can be found any day at 42 Lyon street and will be pleased to talk the matter over with anyone who feels interested.

Office, 41 Lagave street. Hours, 9 to 11 a. m., 1 to 4 p. m., and 7 to 9 p. m. ... Direct all mail to or call on DR. G. E. SANDY, 41 Lagave street, Grand Rapids, Mich.

No one doubts that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy really cures Catarrh, whether the disease be recent or of long standing, because the matters of it clutch their faith in it with a $500 guarantee, which isn't a mere newspaper guarantee, but "you call" in a moment. That moment is when you prove that its makers can't cure you. The reason for their faith in this Dr. Sage's remedy has proved itself the right cure for ninety-nine in one hundred cases of Catarrh in the Head, and the World's Dispensary Medical Association can afford to take the risk of your being the one hundred.

The only question is—are you, willing to make the test, if the makers of it will close out my entire stock of boots and shoes at and below cost. ... I am going out of business I will close out my entire stock of boots and shoes at and below cost.

FOR EXTRA fine photographs go to Bayne & Coss. ... I am going out of business I will close out my entire stock of boots and shoes at and below cost.
