FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1901.

A MORAL POINT. Raines, in his opening address before the Democrats of New York, took particular pains to emphasize the moral point in his pure private life and happy domestic relations. Was this a blow at Hill?

Bachelors are not as popular for office as married men, nor as reliable as a private life is demanded and the man who has his own wife, his own home and pays his devoirs of love there is preferable to the bachelor devoted to club life and illicit pleasures.

This sentiment is growing and it is remarkable that the chairman of a Democratic state convention of New York should go out of his way to compliment a Republican candidate on the fact that he is "pure in private life and happy in his domestic relations."

It shows that the politicians have caught on to this healthy, moral sentiment. Republican candidates who have wives and daughters, and others who have sisters and sweethearts.

The Hornet declares strongly for Capron as the Democratic nominee. The Hornet is Capt. Bellnap's disinterested friend and will carry to him many votes through its influential and large circulation.

Switman Charles A. Goid Accidentally Killed in the South Yards Yesterday Morning. Charles A. Goid, 184 Ninth avenue, Wednesday evening went to work as a switchman in the G. E. & L. yards with the night Yardmaster Scott and Engineer John McCormick.

It is a sad thing that it was not until a few moments and from the manner in which he performed his work it was evident that he was a competent man. They stopped an hour for lunch at midnight and resumed work.

THE PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

No Proof of Inspiration. Error: Mission: Frase—The readers of this column have read so much about the testimony of antiquity regarding the authority of the gospels that they must be interested to know...

The whole extent of Christian literature up to the middle of the second century does not mention or make any allusion to the New Testament. It has been written that all scriptures were written by inspiration...

It is from this wonderful folklore of the New Testament, and the study of the people, their language, customs and myths—and taken, unscrupulously and unaltered, this series of Indian fairy tales.

The use of books is not only to tell, but to preserve; not only for today, but for the future. What an Indian perpetrate must be saved by tongue and ear, by "telling down," as were the world's first histories and poems.

Here in lalela, the quaint pueblo of the Teowahm which I am living, I have recently been very interested in the folk stories themselves, but also in the manner of handling them down. Winter is the season for story telling.

As I come in, kindly old Tata (grandfather) Lorenzo is just beginning a story in the musical Teowahm, and one of the boys is trying to break in with a wooden stool that I may join the circle.

When I hear of a young surgeon in the late civil war who followed at Camp Douglas, and as the sore was ointment it became necessary to use the knife twice.

When all was done, the surgeon laid down on the cot and said: "Such a roar came from the lips of the sick man as is seldom heard from any human being."

Chicago Exposition via G. E. & I. Railway. Round trip tickets will be sold for the coming dates. The rate will be $2.00, which includes one admission to the exposition.

FOLKLORE OF THE PUEBLO INDIANS.

How the Old Inhabitants of New Mexico told their tales of the past. Despite all their progress in civilization, despite their mental and physical advancement...

WOMEN IN VOLCANO.

THEY MAKE A PERILOUS DESCENT INTO POPOCATEPETL. Mexico's lofty Mountains Sealed by Three Plucky Americans. They Startle the Guides by Going Into the Crater—Slide on Down.

At midnight they rose from the cotches in the mountain's bow where they had rested, and made ready. How? By dressing warmly, wrapping their feet in the warmest of furs, and so on.

Six mortal hours of plodding, wearying onward and upward, hardly daring to look behind, they reached the top of the world, seemingly lying in chaos behind them, but themselves pressing up the snow banks before them, wrapped in furs.

At last, with their feet wrappings out to pieces, and their hands raw, they saw the volcano Popocatepetl, glad enough were the women laid to rest in a poor shelter, while their Indian guides and cook prepared their breakfast.

At last, with their feet wrappings out to pieces, and their hands raw, they saw the volcano Popocatepetl, glad enough were the women laid to rest in a poor shelter, while their Indian guides and cook prepared their breakfast.

CONVICTS IN TENNESSEE.

History of the Lease System That Has Caused the Recent Serious Troubles. Our recollection of the history of leasing convict labor in Tennessee since the war is only a matter of memory—no records or documents to refer to.

The initial move, as we remember, was during Governor Brownlow's administration. The machinery was rented to General Zeb Ward, of Kentucky, and the necessary number of prisoners to operate the tools and machines in the shop.

OUR NEIGHBOR STARS.

THERE ARE SCHOLARS WHO THINK THEY ARE INHABITED. Science Has No Means of Proving It, but It Tells the One Who Knows the Greatest Secret of the Universe Which Have Been Reached by the Professor.

CONSIGNMENT RECEIVED DAILY

From all the Leading Merchant Tailors throughout the United States. We have in our employ 10 men who are constantly traveling from city to city and visiting all the Leading Merchant Tailors, and buying up whatever MISFITS they can find, and as we buy them for little or nothing in comparison to their actual worth, we are enabled to sell them to you, for at least 50 to 60 per cent, less than you would have to pay your own tailor for the same material, and we guaranteed a perfect fit in every respect. As we buy only!

From All The Leading Merchant Tailors

MI- FIT will not admit that they ever make a misfit, nor have an unequalled for garment on their hands, to their regular patrons, but as we give them a guarantee not to offer the goods we buy of them for sale in their own cities, we have no trouble in getting them at our own price, and consequently are enabled to sell you a Fine Custom Made Garment for less money than you would have to pay for ordinary Ready Made Ones, and give you a written guarantee to keep your clothes in repair and proper shape for one year.

Throughout the United States

Entire experience you have ever had in buying Clothing, you have never had such an offer as the above made you. We can sell you a Fall Overcoat, a Fall Suit, a Fall Coat and Vest, or a Fall Pants and Vest, or a Single Pair of Pants, and give you a strictly First Class Custom Made Garment, and guarantee you a saving of at least 60 PER CENT. on what your own Tailor would charge you for the same material, and give you the advantage of keeping your clothes in proper shape for ONE YEAR FREE OF CHARGE. Nowhere in the United States.

In our line of business has such an offer ever been made before. Our line of Fall Overcoats and Suits are unsurpassed by any house in the country, and range in price from $6.00 to $30, and you will find them at LEAST 25 to 30 PER CENT. less than ordinary Ready Made Clothing is selling for, and any place you go to buy clothes, we will be most happy to show you through, whether you intend purchasing or not. You will find obliging salesmen in attendance. Remember the place.
