

RICHTERSON'S MEANS

OTTAWA COUNTY STATISTAN STARTED FOR CONGRESS.

They Sign the Cincinnati Platform and Receive Approval of the Executive Committee of the First Fifth District People's Party Convention.

In response to the call issued by Joseph H. Wetmore, of the First District People's party committee, about twenty-five members of labor organizations, Patrons of Industry, Knights of Labor and the Citizens' Alliance, met in Good Templars hall at 10:30 yesterday morning to consider the matter of nominating a candidate for congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. H. Ford. It was a mass convention and the proceedings showed nothing of a "cut and dried" order.

The convention was called to order by Mr. Wetmore, and Wm. T. Seale, president of the Central Labor Union, was selected as chairman, and George Dean as secretary of the temporary organization.

The first motion towards party action was a motion by J. J. Burrows, of this city, proposing the following resolution: Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that moral worth is the true standard of worth, not wealth.

The resolution was laid on the table until the afternoon session, when it was again presented and adopted by a unanimous vote. A committee on permanent organization, consisting of D. W. Carly, M. C. Duffy and E. L. Williams was appointed by the chair, and the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock.

At nearly 2 o'clock the convention again called to order by the temporary chairman, the attendance having been increased to about sixty men. The committee on order of business reported, party was adopted and the program proceeded to business in accordance therewith. The temporary officers were made permanent, and the platform of the People's party adopted at Cincinnati was read. It was moved and carried that a copy of the platform be allowed a voice in the deliberations of the convention. Nearly all present at the convention were requested to retire to the back of the hall.

When the question "will we now proceed to the selection of a candidate for congress" was put, a number of short speeches which plainly showed that the desire of nearly all present was to elect a man of the People's party as a party and as one of the members of the convention to act as a steward for the party.

A large majority of the delegates were in favor of immediately proceeding to nominate a candidate, and those who opposed such action were only a few. The name of George E. Richardson was mentioned nearly a unanimous vote for congress. The name of George E. Richardson was mentioned nearly a unanimous vote for congress.

The sheriff has become alarmed at the rate in which suicides are committed and will place on duty to watch the remaining prisoners.

TROUBLE IN TENNESSEE

Miners and Their Friends Have Plans to Liberate the Convicts or Make Work for the Governor.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 22.—No official tidings of a disturbing character have been received from Briceville today, yet confidence that something is going to happen there is maintained. The miners will stand by the sixty days armistice till Thursday and then the ball will open. It is not appreciated that there will be any marching or parading of any kind.

The reactionary force at Briceville demand the withdrawal of convicts. The danger threatened is a different character and is not that of insurrection and armed resistance to troops, but that the miners will suddenly appear in front, around the stockade and demand the surrender of the convicts. If the guards resist they may be overpowered.

The miners would do a bloodless taking of the convicts out of the stockade and return them to the mines. The miners will stand by the sixty days armistice till Thursday and then the ball will open. It is not appreciated that there will be any marching or parading of any kind.

THERE'S ANOTHER, BUT WHO?

THE HILL SALOON WILL NOT FLIRT WITH JUSTICE.

The Mayor Writes a Review of the Record, Showing Plainly That the Action of the Council Has Been Irregular and of No Legal Effect.

Last evening just before the close of the day there had been some anxiety business at the city clerk's office. The clerk, a lengthy committee on the part of the applicants was to whether the mayor would send in a veto. Calling early in the morning they made a tender of the money required for the license, but the time elapsed in the city, the veto power could be exercised.

The Mayor's Office, Sept. 22, 1901. To the Honorable Council: I assume that the existing provisions of the charter and ordinances of the city are valid and binding. The ordinance in that behalf provided a saloon in this city shall, before a license shall be obtained for that purpose, make an application in writing to the common council for such license, stating the number and location of the saloon to be licensed.

The paper purporting to be an application referred to by the committee, and reported back to the council, was in no sense an application, as it contained no sense of blank paper. At the meeting of said council held on Monday, Sept. 17, 1901, the application was denied. Alderman Saunders moved as a substitute that the application be approved, the application granted, and the clerk instructed to issue a license.

THEY CORNERED CORN

BUT WERE UNABLE TO CONTROL THE LARGE RESERVE.

"Deacon" White, One of New York's Boldest Speculators, Poured to the Wall by Fire and Water and a Big Crop.

New York, Sept. 22.—Announcement of the assignment and suspension of S. White & Co., of New York, which was made on the stock exchange at 10:20 o'clock this morning. Mr. White says the failure is due to long speculation in corn and not in stocks. The liabilities of the firm are largely bonded, and a few hundred shares of stock are outstanding on contract.

The climax of today's catastrophe has been approaching culmination for several days. The market, which had been carefully guarded, leaked out yesterday afternoon after the closing of the stock exchange. An assignment of the assets of the embarrassed firm was then said to have been made, but not reported.

The volume of business in railroad stocks during the last three days has diverted to some extent attention from speculation and investments in heavy stocks. The volume of the embarrassed firm has been able to conceal the real state of their actual condition without the slightest difficulty, and so far as the general operators on the street are concerned no question as to solvency has been raised.

It was only after thoughtful consideration and a very complete review of the situation that it was decided to make the assignment for the benefit of creditors. The following illustrates the personal feeling in regard to the failure. It is an expression of one of the firm's friends.

"Any one who knows S. White knows the man. There is no one in Wall street who does not sympathize with him. He has helped more men than anybody on the street.

"If everybody who the street would have known that the firm was in a bad way, it would have been a rich man. He has acted in absolute honor, and I have no doubt, with all his faults, that he was a man of great character and high integrity.

At 1 o'clock the assignment of Stephen White, Franklin W. Hopkins, company, to the liquidator, was announced. The volume of business in railroad stocks during the last three days has diverted to some extent attention from speculation and investments in heavy stocks.

BEHOLD REAPPORTED.

One of Balmaceda's Orders That Did Not Take Effect.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Frederick Booke, one of the most prominent members of congress, who has been in the United States, but was removed a few weeks before the downfall of Balmaceda, has today been reported as having returned to his home in the United States, and his restoration to office one of the first acts of the provisional government. In fact the report pointed out there has actually been no change in the great general.

ACTORS IN COURT AGAIN

The South End Circuit, Vitoz Malder and Other Noted Characters Intervened by Judge Westfall.

William Barry was in Police court again yesterday morning on the old charge of drunk, and to avoid 12 days of confinement he paid $5.35 into the library fund. Aaron Johnson, the South End ghost number two, was convicted of being drunk and disorderly, and in default of a $30 assessment was sent to county work for 60 days.

John and Charles Harris and John Frank, who had been arrested on a charge of assault with intent to murder Nick Mulder, and demanded an examination, were set for trial on the morning of the 24th of ball in $5,000 bail. The defendants were committed to jail. The Joe Cummings old time drunk and disorderly case went over until Sept. 30.

C. Burrows, manager of Redmond's opera house, the Bell, manager of the "Rocky Mountain" and John A. H. Phillips, J. W. Caps, Ed. Lee, P. H. Chiffon, Louis Whitford, and others who had formed a corporation to proceed to the new lands and settle on adjacent claims, have been dispatched there to preserve order, and it is believed that they will be able to maintain order.

One of the unique sights at Tohse was a company of young ladies, who were on their way to a social organization company to proceed to the new lands and settle on adjacent claims, have been dispatched there to preserve order, and it is believed that they will be able to maintain order.

So far as the serious conflict has been concerned, the country has been peacefully occupied. A New Detroit Clothing Store. The "Star," one of the most reliable firms in the city, has fitted up a custom clothing department on the second floor of the building.

RACE OF THE BOOMERS

THE SCENES OF OKLAHOMA'S SETTLEMENT REENACTED.

Fifteen Thousand Claimants for Five Thousand Acres—A Company of Young Ladies in the Lead.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 22.—"The land is yours." That is what every time-keeper on the border of the lands opened to settlement today proclaimed when his words pointed to the hour of noon. Simultaneous with the arrival of that hour the home-seekers gathered on the border, made a headlong rush over the line into the coveted country, and to the quarter of a million who were there had been feasting, some for days and others for weeks and months.

The rush was mad one and was made so by the fact that the number of home-seekers greatly exceeded the number of acres available for settlement. "First there, first served," was the motto of every racer. There was room in the new lands for about 5,000 settlers, allowing 100 acres for each. There were about 15,000 people there to claim the available land fully 15,000 people; so that there were three persons to each section. It was no wonder that the rush was a mad one. For in this case at least, the race was not for the money, but for the land.

One of the unique sights at Tohse was a company of young ladies, who were on their way to a social organization company to proceed to the new lands and settle on adjacent claims, have been dispatched there to preserve order, and it is believed that they will be able to maintain order.

FOR HORSE CHOUCHEUTE

"An own, young man, what you want to remember is this—on take it for you."

Choucheute turned with a smile to Miss Felicie on his left, his hand resting on her shoulder...

"How much you give me, Mars Choucheute?" he asked, looking down the village street...

"You give me all that money?" asked the postmaster's wife, looking at the money she had just received...

"What a mad idea!" one of the riders barked, as he saw the horse and rider plunging into the water below...

"He is rushing to the station, because it seemed to him, naturally, the first thing to do. There was the faint hope that his own horse would save him...

"Suppose he should stand in the doorway, and the horse, with a kick and with the dancer, it would not be a moment."

"Choucheute dismantled, fastened his horse in the best and proceeded to work the house."

"The weather is fine for bathing, the bathing houses are open, the steamers are all running..."

with the family of some that was already deafening.

"The time was speeding. The air was heavy in the room, but no one seemed to notice this."

All the young women were evidently up in the attic, and looked as if any one of them could pick up the little tiger, top boots, and take him to his home with him without any inconvenience.

It really seemed very absurd, but the young women sauntered slowly on, evidently not in the least concerned at the point sufficiently near the hotel and near the business part of the thoroughfare...
