THE DIVISOR'S FORCES SAID TO HAVE BEEN DEFEATED.

The Secessionists Reported to be Outgoing Every Hour—National Troops Joining the Revolutionists—Fonseca's Financial Outlook is Not Flattering.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—Even the most alarming reports from Brazil are confirmed today by a dispatch received by a leading financial house having large interests in Brazil. The message, so far as it relates to the cipher complications in which it has been wrapped, says, in substance:

Affairs look bad; upheaval probable; result uncertain; the action of the Bank of Brazil in joining opposition; Fonseca can't count on army; health bad; fighting going on somewhere; Fonseca's financial position; Fonseca's financial position; Fonseca's financial position.

Further fighting is reported in Brazil and the opposition forces are again credited with a victory. The spot where the battle was fought is not stated, but it is supposed to have been in the vicinity of the capital, Rio Grande do Sul.

The Fonseca, from Sao Paulo, is discharging most of the troops he has concentrated there to the assistance of Governor Castillo in Rio Grande do Sul, and the national party is said to be determined not to allow the junction of the two forces to be accomplished without a struggle.

It is Da Fonseca all that the Nationalists try to gather themselves together to fight their way south and the first line of argument of the civil war may have been blocked for. Today's cable advice adds that the Nationalists will probably be able to get the Fonseca's army out of the province of Minas-Geral.

A later message says that the Da Fonseca's army is being sent to Rio Grande do Sul, and that the Fonseca's army is being sent to Rio Grande do Sul, and that the Fonseca's army is being sent to Rio Grande do Sul.

A dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Rio de Janeiro, says that the Nationalists are making a strong stand regarding the opposition to the Fonseca's army, and that the Fonseca's army is being sent to Rio Grande do Sul.

A Fresh View of the Situation. On Nov. 13, 1891, the Nationalists from Brazil, apparently set to ally their forces regarding the financial situation, declares the government is satisfied with the outlook and expects a surplus. In the treasury, it says, there are large amounts of money, and the surplus remaining from last year gives a reserve of over 60,000,000 of reis.

As the German See It. Berlin, Nov. 13.—Chancellor Caprivi, after a visit to the German admiralty, has sent instructions to the German admiral in control of the south Atlantic squadron to protect German interests in the strictest manner. Re-enforcements are being sent to Brazil from other sources.

A True Oatmeal Plant Burned. Reading, Nov. 13.—The works of the Great Oatmeal Plant, the largest plant of the oatmeal trade in the West, was destroyed by fire this morning. A burning steam pipe caused the fire. Several firemen were injured by falling walls. The loss is about $300,000.

The Old Man in Wall. COLUMBIA, O., Nov. 13.—The report that Judge Thurman is dying is a canard. He is enjoying excellent health. There is no cause whatever for the rumor.

Thanksgiving Day. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The president has proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 26, as a national day of thanksgiving. The day is the first Thursday after the third Monday in October.

Current News Condensed. Senor Montt, the newly appointed Chilean minister, will be presented to the president today. The Missouri legislature in congress will support William H. Hatch of that state for speaker.

Reports of casualties from the recent storm on the British Isles continue to pour in. The storm has done severely and many lives were lost. The decision of Chicago not to enter into a contest for the Republican National convention is favorably received.

Louis Adler, the big Chicago Clock Dealer, in Trouble.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The wholesale clocking business, owned and conducted by Louis Adler, Madison street, was taken possession of this afternoon by the action of the Bank of Commerce for $42,500. Adler conducts a big business and his credit has been so good that he has been able to borrow considerable money of late but now no trouble negotiating paper.

DRIVEN OUT BY WHISKY

A Poor Mother and her Little Boy Found Dead in a Cell at St. Mark's Hospital.

Freezing to death on the steps of a charitable institution seems to be a hard fate, but it was illustrated last night in the case of a poor mother and her little boy, who were found at a late hour sleeping under the big wood pile of St. Mark's hospital.

The police as soon as they discovered the woman and her son they were persuaded to tell how they came to be under the wood pile. The woman, whose name is not given, had lived in this city many years. Her husband, she said, had been a drunkard and died every night. She showed great scars on her head where she had been beaten by her husband, and she said she had a little bundle of clothes for her boy, a thin dress, and a hat.

When questioned cried as though her heart would break, and she said that if they could send her to the Women's Home and Hospital for the night and let her stay there until she could be helped.

SUES THE CENTRAL

James Hopkins Wants Financial Sale for Injuries Done by Railroad.

James C. Hopkins, by his attorneys, Stace & Quinsey, filed a declaration in the Circuit court yesterday as the commencement of an action of trespass on the case. The declaration makes the Michigan Central Railroad the defendant and alleges that the plaintiff on Oct. 12, while driving across the tracks of the company at what is known as the Fifth avenue crossing was struck by an engine owned and operated by the Michigan Central Railroad.

The plaintiff was greatly injured, his property was destroyed, and defendant is liable in violation of the city ordinance and that the crossing was unguarded by any other person or persons.

The plaintiff was running at a speed of fifteen miles an hour, a speed nine miles in excess of the city ordinance, and that the crossing was unguarded by any other person or persons.

POLICE COURT MATTERS

Mande Could Not Prove That Anna Stole Her Ring.

Frank Cooley and Peter Leys were the plain drunks in Police court yesterday morning. Cooley escaped on suspension, but Leys was fined $10 for violation of the city ordinance.

Charles Tattersall and John Sadder were committed for fifteen days each in default of fines for being drunk and disorderly. Michael Tansley paid $5 for a breach of the peace.

Nick Menassa, arrested a month ago on a warrant for stealing a ring from Joseph Kruse, was tried by a jury, who were unable to agree, and the case was ordered for a second trial.

A Mother-in-Law in Trouble. Ed L. Polton, police court clerk, issued a warrant last evening for the arrest of Ellen Ferris of 379 North Lafayette street, on a charge of disorderly conduct. The complainant is James Lewis of 617 Colt avenue, who charges Ferris with being a drunk and disorderly.

Mr. and Mrs. Balcom's Silver Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Balcom celebrated their silver wedding last night at their pleasant home, 391 Grandville avenue. The occasion was marked by a large and numerous and costly. Among the guests from abroad were George Balcom and his wife, and the Hon. Harry Chesman of Wyoming territory.

TRAIN ROBBERY.

The express companies and Uncle Sam will have to obtain a more effective and rapid fire gun to protect the mails and money in course of transit from armed bands of robbers.

The wild west and the far south are now the only sections of the United States where robbery is rampant in Iowa and Wisconsin and is likely to spread.

The wicked business is encouraged by the fact that a train robber is never killed or arrested. In almost every instance they get away with their loot free.

This kind of highway robbery is not feared in Europe, not even in the wilds of Russia. It is the one terrible crime known only to America and confined almost exclusively to the United States.

Some extraordinary measure will have to be adopted as a protection against this provoking and deplorable outrage at whatever cost. An armed cylinder in every passenger car is a part of the solution.
