BANISH THE STRIKE.

It is quite likely a strike among railroad hands now being a success to certain extent. The railroads are very busy and need all their experienced help and perhaps would pay a little more rather than be troubled by the loss of the men whose services they need very much.

We regret to see the announcement of a strike among the men employed in the opening of winter, for a strike usually war and rarely is ended without violence as well as suffering.

Strikes should be avoided as something dreadful. The reforms demanded by workmen must be secured through the ballot box, then if any violence comes from the men, the violent part will be evolved on the employees.

Preliminary to action at the ballot box there must be solid organization and united action at the polls. Let it be understood that the labor organizations of today have a new inspiration.

The membership in a labor organization does not involve the danger and suffering to a member and his family that attend a strike that may be forced on him against his will, that the principal purpose of a labor organization is to agree upon demands for reforms by labor and to pledge the membership to such political action as will obtain those reforms by legislative action.

With well defined aims to be attained by an intelligent use of the ballot all labor organizations will become attractive to all workmen and will be robbed of the terror to many that the strike carries. Solid organizations would not be objectionable to the employers of labor.

We are opposed to anarchy, but in order to suppress that form of treason we do not believe it is necessary that the rights of American citizenship should be violated.

The Democrats are counting some on organizing the house of representatives at their own sweet will. If all the men who own their election to Alliance votes are elected, the Democrats will have secured their re-election next year, out of the Democratic caucus as Congressman Simpson says they should, it is possible the Democratic caucus may not organize the house as it should.

The public and congressional mind is in that mood that permits the possibility of the unexpected. By refusing to ensure the mayor and chief of police for their raid on the meeting of a trade union in Chicago on the pretense that it was a meeting of the Knights of the Bazaar, the members of the Chicago council have laid the blame for the loss of a large body of voters dead.

WE ARE OFTEN ASKED

What can I do to get rid of this complaint? I would like to appear in my former role; I would like to be a man again in the enjoyment of all my powers.

To those with this desire we can only say, go at once to Dr. S. Clay Todd, 16 North Division street, Grand Rapids, Mich. His success is unsurpassed; his remedies, (compounded and sold only by himself,) are doing more for the public than all the various ions and pathes combined. It could not be other wise; he will thoroughly understand your complaint, and will give you such remedies only, as will immediately remove the cause of the complaint, and restore your lost strength and vigor. There can be no reaction as he does not use nervines, (depressants) or nerve stimulants, you will therefore remain permanently well.

Thousands throughout the country are every day testifying to Dr. S. Clay Todd's wonderful success in curing them after they have tried from three to a dozen other physicians.

The following new suits have been commenced in the Circuit court with the particulars suppressed: John N. Murray and William A. Sammons against the Rigor Furniture company, by attachment; Fred A. Maynard and Henry E. Clark against E. J. Moore, by summons; Margaret McCormick, against John Evans and Bernard Fingleton, against all trespass by summons.

In the Superior court today the action of trespass on the case commenced some time ago by Martha M. Tompkins against the city will be placed on trial. The case grows out of the closing of Wonderland theater during the fall of 1906 and keeping it closed until about a year ago. The amount of damages claimed is $20,000. Mrs. Tompkins will be represented by her husband and the city by W. W. Taylor and a hard fight is promised.

CARPETS.

Prices Piled Down to the Quick.

Our clerks armed to the teeth with sharp shears and yard sticks will force these goods to find quarters elsewhere. We will not store or inventory them and divorce proceedings will commence at once. We must have bought expecting to export, but our trade, though immense, is mostly confined to the United States. We are overstocked on the highest grades of Carpets, so the qualities and styles we offer are of the very best, and prices will surprise the factories. A portion of these elegant Carpets will be on "dress parade" in our Show Windows during the conflict. If you mistrust you need a Carpet take the "Air Line" or the "Bee Line" direct for our store, and do it at once. For remember these prices, like "compressed yeast" at the set time, will raise again.
