

THE BIG BOATS TO BE BUILT BY THE LACKAWANNA.

Big Ice Crushing Boats to Transfer Loaders Across Lake Michigan—The Largest Transfer of the Kind in the World—Design Now Preparing.

SAGINAW, Feb. 19.—W. R. Burr says relative to the Delaware & Lackawanna's new route, via the Ann Arbor road and the boat line between Keweenaw and Grand Island, that the contract for the new route in the fresh water marine will be made in the case of the new boat, for which plans and specifications are now being prepared.

The design to construct an ice crusher which will carry loaded cars clear across the lake, doing away with the necessity for loading or unloading. The boat is to have a capacity of twenty-four loaded freight cars, is to run winter months and is to be so fast that it can make the trip across the lake and back twice in twenty-four hours. It is to be completed by next fall and will be the first boat of the sort on the Michigan.

While the plan of transferring loaded freight cars by transport is a new idea, it is not without precedent. As that of Mackinac, the construction of a boat designed to navigate the St. Lawrence river, which would be fitted in all kinds of weather to present new problems in marine architecture.

The plan of Lake Michigan is in the vicinity of Frankfort, but it is still somewhat in the preliminary stage. At no other place in the world are loaded cars carried so far by boat and the project is to be made a railroad men open their eyes.

The new project that may be expected to be completed by next fall will carry loaded cars from New York to Liverpool and Havre, and independent of the existing docks and dockworkers, can be loaded and unloaded in 10 minutes with just two men from an experienced sailing vessel.

Operations on the Lackawanna's rail and boat route will be completed when they are ready to carry their new and novel plan into effect. But one boat will be built first, and the rest will be ordered as the need arises.

The scheme has been formed, not with the purpose of giving the F. & P. M. railway competition, but with the adoption of improved methods, but because it is absolutely necessary to reach the business and the existing freight across the lake by the old system of transfer has proved expensive and inefficient.

KILLBUCK, HER PARAMOUR. An American in France Deals Out Summary Justice to the Londoner who is His Boss.

DEACON DEACON. Deacon of Boston knocked on a door in one of the corridors of the Hotel Saginaw Wednesday night at an o'clock and was answered by a woman who said "I have a good mind to kill you as I have killed that dirty dog, but killing is too good for you. You shall be reserved for a worse fate. You shall live to have the reward of your own crime."

REID HAS RESIGNED.

Paris, Feb. 19.—The Gauletis today states that Whitehall Reid, the American minister to France, has resigned and will leave Paris today. The report lacks confirmation, but it is generally credited in official circles. Mr. Reid's retirement will be generally regretted not only by Americans here but in diplomatic and social circles. The American minister has been very popular among all classes.

New York, Feb. 19.—The report that Minister Reid has resigned does not confirm in the Tribune office here. It is known among newspaper editors and other circles that the resignation was not made until the resignation of the editor of the Tribune's office has been contemplated.

What was the cause of his resignation? It is thought that his resignation is hastened by Mr. Reid's desire to take personal charge of his newspaper as soon as possible. His resignation will be more decisively felt in the councils of the Republican party.

AN ORIGINAL PROPOSITION FOR SELF GOVERNMENT.

"Home Rule is the Cry of the Majority of the People, But They do Not Want to be Disappointed." The Hon. Geo. P. De Vries before the Committee.

Washington, Feb. 19.—The wishes of the people of Utah are daily being set forth to the members of the senate and house committees on territories.

All Utah is here by proxy, for the diverse interests are looked after by thirteen citizens who are classified with the "Gentiles" and three who have affinities which bind them to the Mormon faith.

The first and most original of these propositions looks to a novel governmental condition, something unique in American history.

GREAT PACINO RACE.

Four Thousand People See Both Sides of Front Street from Second to Leonard Streets yesterday afternoon to see the great pacino race between Acorn and the late one of George, W. P. De Vries, Three Corners, Walter Northrop's Little Witch and A. L. Livingston's Riley.

The judges were Col. Frank Rice, E. B. Dikeman and Judge Henry A. Hydrum, who chose A. N. Adams as starter. The heats were straight mile best 2 in 3.

It was nearly 3:30 when a cordon of police closed the roadway and Abner the starter, gave the word "go" from the starting point at Leonard street.

The second heat was a repetition of the first. George, winning by three lengths.

INGERSOLL--BUCKLEY.

They Start a Spirited Controversy in Which Others Join.

WAS IT TIDINGS OF GREAT JOY?

A Discussion That Shows a Great Diversity of Views Among the Defenders of Christianity and Some Rashness of Statement Among Its Opponents.

On the 19th of December, 1891, the New York Evening Telegram published a so-called "Christmas sermon" by one of the editors, Ingersoll and invited criticism. The "sermon" was as follows:

The good part of Christmas is not always Christian; it is generally pagan—that is, say, human, natural. Christianity did not come with tidings of great joy, but with a message of eternal grief. It came with the threat of everlasting torture on its lips. It meant doom on earth and perdition hereafter.

And yet it may have done some good by turning from the pagan world the hearts of some of its converts.

Long before Christ was born the Sun God triumphed over the powers of Darkness. About the time that the Christians the days began perceptibly to lengthen. Our barbarian ancestors were worshippers of the sun and the stars.

I believe in Christmas and in every day that is given to us. We, in America, have too much work and not enough play. We are too much like the English.

DR. JAMES MONROE BUCKLEY.

When Horace Gregory exposed certain gross misrepresentations he used the title "lies that are monumental." He meant that the lies were so big and so many that they would pass from our memory, but he could not have had a better reason to use such a title than any Christian could have.

"Christianity did not come with tidings of great joy, but with a message of eternal grief." Contrast this libel with the gospel: "Glorious to the highest, and on earth peace, good will to men of good will." "I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance."

Colonel Ingersoll says: "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some would count slackness, not in saying suffering toward us, as will not that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

Colony Ingersoll says: "Not satisfied with that, it has degraded the God of the pardoning power. He has written with red ink the name of the God of love."

BELOW THE SURFACE.

LIFE THOUSANDS OF FEET IN THE BOWELS OF THE EARTH.

In the Depths of the Comstock Lode. Boiling in a Great Subterranean of Hundreds of Miles of Streets Where Work Never Ceases.

Very different is the life led by the miner of the Comstock lode when on duty from that of the old California gold washer. The scene of his labors is hundreds of feet beneath the earth in a dark, gloomy cavern to which no ray of sunlight ever penetrates. Dr. Quille says of the Comstock mine that when he descends to his work, going down still down from 1,000 to 3,000 feet, he leaves behind all the grand upper world, so broadly and beautifully lighted by the sun. It has been landed at his station from the car (cage) of his vertical cable road to steps forth into quite a different world.

REV. JAMES M. KING.

He Condemns The Telegram for Publishing the Christmas Sermon.

In the Telegram of Jan. 2, Colonel Ingersoll replied to Dr. Buckley, asserting, with many other things, that the Old Testament was written to say to the people of that time that the New Testament promised an eternal hell to most men, and therefore it was not approved of God of the pardoning power.

And yet it may have done some good by turning from the pagan world the hearts of some of its converts.

Long before Christ was born the Sun God triumphed over the powers of Darkness. About the time that the Christians the days began perceptibly to lengthen. Our barbarian ancestors were worshippers of the sun and the stars.
