FARMER'S SOLDIER RECORDED.
The Democrats had better let old man Palmer of Illinois alone. He is a Western man with Eastern principles. Besides that he is beyond his allotted "three score years and ten." His war record would do him no good. It would be recalled that although he rose to the rank of a major general and commanded the Fourteenth corps and was closely identified with the army of the Cumberland, he never cut any figure in any reunions of any kind.

He is detested by the soldiers who love Rosecrans, for his unjust and ignorant war on that grand old hero after Chick-amauga. It is a fact that he resigned because he could not be assigned the command of the Fourteenth corps and had got as far as Bridgeport, Ala., on his way home, when the army at Chamberlain was in its greatest peril, when he received a telegram from President Lincoln recalling the acceptance of his resignation and ordering him back to the front to take command of the Fourteenth corps, vice Thomas promoted to command the army of the Cumberland, vice Rosecrans relieved. He was willing to go back and take the corps under Thomas but was not willing to stay and command a division under Rosecrans.

This unpopularity, like of Palmore's undoubted Chattanooga and might have brought disaster to the Union armies fatal to the cause and by it Rosecrans was struck down as unjustly as McClelland had been in the east.
Afterwards, before Atlanta, on the 23th of July, 1864, at the headquarters of General J. C. Davis, commanding the Second division, Fourteenth army corp, this same Palmore tried to put the blame on General Sherman for an order for which Palmore himself was responsible, order that took Davis' division out of the battle of this day on the extreme right pulled three times the desperate assault of Hood, intended to turn Sherman's right and cut him off from his line to the rear across the Chattahoochee river, a movement, which if successful, would have resulted in overwhelming disaster to Sherman's army.

There on that day the quarrel between Sherman and Palmore Palmore in dispute with all of Sherman's friends.

The heroes who idolized Sherman and Rosecrans will never take kindly to Palmore.

ALDERMANIC REVENUE.
THE MORNING PRESS is not "kicking" at the action of the council in awarding the contract for the "second printing." It expected no favors from the aldermen and is therefore not disappointed.
It has been something of a thorn in the abdominal region of the would-be hoodlumbers, if they think they have sufficiently repaid it for defeating their schemes to rob the taxpayers by the adoption of worthless pavements and creating new offices the paper congratulates them on their satisfaction.

It is probable, however, that had the Democratic aldermen a year ago adopted the policy of giving the spoils to the papers which supported their party, they would now enjoy a greater feeling of satisfaction, and they would not be accused of having voted to rob the taxpayers simply to "get even" with a paper that has to call attention to their disrespectable doings.

Alderman Hauser's statement that the paper is not considered responsible, may be taken as a cowardly bit of spite work. The Press Publishing company can show a better financial standing today than Alderman Hauser or any paper in the city, except The Eagle, and it has never used any of the Street Railway company's money.

If the Republicans cannot elect Harrison, they cannot elect any man. All that Republicans is today Harrison is and no more or less. The issues of the campaign will be the acts of Harrison's administration. If they are to be approved they should be approved in the person of the president himself. He is "the legal candidate" of the party. Any failure to put him in nomination will be regarded by the country as a back-down and confession of weakness.

The fact that Alger, Quay, Platt and Cleveland are opposed to Harrison's renomination is a strong point in his favor with all honest men.

SENATOR FREYER'S whippers both the Republicans so much it is surprising they don't advise Senator Stockbridge to shelve.

OUR SAFEST CURRENCY.
Says the Detroit Tribune:
It is not surprising that, after setting up Crozier Cleveland on a free silver platform, the Kansas Democrats should demand the continued use of our greenback currency. We imagine the people will continue the use of as many greenbacks as they can get hold of without any compulsion, especially as they constitute our safest currency outside of bank notes and gold certificates.

The idea that greenbacks are our safest currency outside of bank notes and gold certificates is rich.

The bank notes is redeemable in greenbacks, and yet it is better than its re-demmer. The bank note is not a legal tender, the greenback is; and yet the bank note is better currency than the greenback.

The gold certificates are no more redeemable in gold than the greenback.
There is, therefore, no difference between them, if even there was any difference between gold and silver coin, which there is not.

The best money in this country, without any exception whatever, is the greenback, because it is a full legal tender, and is receivable for all public debts, at this time, the same as gold and silver.

The bank note is not legal tender money, but it is good money for all general purposes of exchange, because the government promises to redeem it in greenbacks, and as greenbacks are redeemable in coin, it makes the bank note the same as coin, excepting only where a legal tender is technically demanded.

GEORGE W. STONE has been a good auditor general, one of the best the state has had in many years. His announced purpose to resign is a candidate for that office will be regretted by his many friends in all parts of the state to be found in all parties. General Stone is an old Greenbacker and has a war record that endears him to the comrades of the Grand Army. He has been devoted to the public interest as auditor general and has made a record there for honesty, economy and hard work that would have made him a great strength to his party in the approaching election.

PROPERTY OWNERS will note that the votes of the Democratic aldermen last night made the expense of every public improvement roll $2.30 more than it paid out of the general fund, but must come out of the home owners who are assessed for street improvements, the construction of sewers, etc. The man who pay the taxes will undoubtedly remember this action a year or two at least and the Democrats will again be standing on the street corners whining about the People's party and The Monrois Press having defeated their party.

All the leading English papers are pronounced against the American proposition for an international conference on silver coinage. There is no possibility of anything favorable being obtained from such a conference. If it is assented to it will only be to add the cold bath advocates in this country and in the nature of a conspiracy to receive the American people into a reinforcement of the Republican party on the money question that the present policy may be continued to the advantage of the money power both in Europe and America.

When Fox and Barrows fight another time the shooting should beat a distance of two paces, at least the seconds would do a grand thing for the public if they would arrange the next meeting so that it would be sure death to both of their principals.

ALISON BOEHM had better get away from that awful Harry Vane Millbank or he will get into real, dreadful, bloody duel, and no mistake.

to revolutionize the politics of that state.

Thirt Thousand Bodies Transferred From One Cemetery to Another.
 MONTICOMM, April 25.—By Sunday night it is expected that the work of transferring the bodies from the old Union cemetery at Belle and Vermont streets, east to the new room for forty-two residence buildings, will have completed their labor.

Altogether nearly 8,000 bodies have been removed from the cemetery, although it does not cover a very large area. Evidently the employees of the corporation that formerly owned the cemetery believed in turning an honest penny, and as many of them as possible, in several cases as many as fifteen bodies have been exhumed from a single grave.

It has been a grievous task, but the men did not mind it so long as they got their $5 a day, which was the least sum that would tempt them to delve down among the skulls and bones. It was not many days however, could be included to work after the shades of night had fallen, and the residents of the neighborhood, although they were not aided daily by the thousands and watched the diggers with a morbid curiosity, were careful to give the enclosure a wide berth after sundown.

Some curious discoveries have tended from time to time to relieve the operators. One of the coffins brought up in the morning was that of a child, and of the shape of a torpedo, broad and pointed at the ends. Upon inspection the lid therein was found to be a man in a perfect state of preservation, not the slightest trace of decay being apparent, although according to the records, the interment must have taken place fully a century ago. The body rested in a coffin of the most costly satin, colored and white, and red hair upon the sides was as intact as though the interment had taken place but a couple of days. This is ascribed to the fact that the covering of heavy plate glass beneath the lid rendered the iron casket absolutely air-tight.

In another coffin, containing the body of a woman, there were two fetters, which, it is believed, were caused by speculation upon an undertaker's expense, which it was customary in this profession to place iron on the knees of people who had been be-logged in their lifetimes, in order to keep them in their graves. Several hundred of the bodies were found to be completely rotted, resembling a condition due to the damp, malarious ground. Three coffins, entirely empty, have been brought to the surface, while in another casket was the body of a woman whose hair and beard grown so long as to fill the rooming. In another case the diggers found the skeleton of a woman with a luxuriant growth of hair, six feet long. The coffin had crumbled to dust.

The remains are being reinterred in Northwood cemetery.

 From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hard of Grotto, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my chest, and set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. A remedy was tried, but with my friends on earth, I could not stay any about, and they all advised me to go to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I bought a bottle and took it according to the directions, and I am now as well and hearty as ever. It has cured me of my cold, cough, and of the shape of a torpedo, broad and pointed at the ends. Upon inspection the lid therein was found to be a man in a perfect state of preservation, not the slightest trace of decay being apparent, although according to the records, the interment must have taken place fully a century ago. FOR DECORATION DAY.

Arrangements made by the Committee last night.

At a meeting of the committee from the various G. A. R. posts in the city hall at H. A. Hydrick's office last evening, the program for Decoration Day was prepared.

On the Sunday preceding May 30 memorial services will be held at the Division Street M. E. church at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. A. Gould. It is expected that all members of the G. A. R. posts will attend in a body.

A proposition was also received from Abraham Jones that the committee would furnish 200 small flags, he would get and train 100 small boys and 100 girls to march in the procession on Decoration Day. The proposition was accepted.

The official program was then submitted and approved as follows: Companies B, E and H of the Michigan state troops with Fox Battery, Champlin, Watson, Grand Rapids and Logan G. A. R. posts and I. B. Richardson camp G. O. V. will report to George E. Ford, marshal, at 2 o'clock in the morning at the corner of West Bridge and Turner streets, the right resting on Bridge.

THE THEATERS.

The "Pirates of Penzance" as presented by the Grand Rapids Guard at Powers' last night was the most meritorious amateur theatrical performance ever presented in Grand Rapids. It was satisfactory and enjoyable to the audience which is a fact that is seldom truthfully stated of amateur performances. Of course, as must be expected, there were many unpleasant little things, such as hesitations and some awkward movements. Some of the gentlemen, and ladies also, appeared to be slightly embarrassed and acted as if it would be a relief to them to put their hands in their pockets. Nearly all, however, were quite at ease, accepting and singing their parts more acceptably than many professionals.

The play was opened by Mrs. (Mabel) Nichols as "Mabel" filled the place that had been vacated by the late Mrs. Nichols. Mrs. Nichols was a great success both in her singing and comedy. Capt. Kromer as the "Pirate Apprentice" was pleasing and sang the part effectively. As lovers he was evoked by Mrs. (Mabel) Nichols and Arthur Kromer as "Samuel" was a great success both in his singing and comedy. Capt. Kromer as the "Pirate Apprentice" was pleasing and sang the part effectively. As lovers he was evoked by Mrs. (Mabel) Nichols and Arthur Kromer as "Samuel" was a great success both in his singing and comedy.

THE ENTERTAINMENT AT SMITH'S OPERA HOUSE.

The entertainment at Smith's opera house last night was a most enjoyable one. The program consisted of singing, dancing, juggling and humorous sketches, and embraced several very meritorious specialties. The Misses Swan and Clifton are very good singers. Harry C. Shick gives songs and an excellent imitation of George Wilson's celebrated minstrel talk. Miss Jennie Cook, who has been in the Carroll are very pleasing. Ray Carroll is superior as a hired dancer and high kicker. There is nothing in the line of acting in the acts this company, but it is well balanced and each turn has more or less merit.

A BEGGAR ARRESTED.

A Worthless Scoundrel Imposes Upon the Kind Hearted.

John Collins, a professional beggar, was jailed last night by a special detail of police. As Patrolman Millaly was going to his work he saw a man with his hand in a sling and apparently asking alms of a gentleman who was passing.

He took hold of the young man's coat collar while he asked the gentleman if he had given the man money. The gentleman said that he had handed the fellow 50 cents to buy his supper and pay for lodging.

The young man, while the talk was going on, loosened his arm from the sling, and raised his hand to his forehead. He was a white man, about 35 years of age, and had nearly $10 in silver. His car is quite sore caused by the use of carbolic acid, which he kept on his skin, and related sufficiently to lead a person to believe he had actually been scalded, a dodge which he uses to excite sympathy.

I HEREBY warn the public from trusting me with Lucy Lee Holmes, on my account, as I shall pay no debts of her contracting. HENRY HOLMES.

Disturbed a Meeting.

An Active Call for Muscular Christianity at the A. M. B. Church.

A warrant was issued yesterday from Police court on complaint of Clarence O. Wing for the arrest of Pat Scanlon, John Powers and William Kelley on a charge of disturbing a religious meeting. It appears that one of the trio went into the A. M. B. church Sunday evening and was followed by the other two. Their conductor was not keeping with church etiquette, and the complainant, who is a letter carrier, asked them to retire. Scanlon showed light and pulling a cigar from his pocket, lit it and commenced smoking during the services. An effort was made to put the loafers out, and in the tussle Wing received a black eye. Complaint was made to the police against Scanlon, who is said to have hit Wing, for assault and battery.
