THE LAGO BURNER. The unpleasant accident which occurred at the Lake yesterday.

The rowers were well treated yesterday notwithstanding the cold north wind. Reed's Lake, John Ball park and North park were thronged from early in the afternoon until "all aboard for the lake trip" was called and caused the pleasure seekers to scramble for one or another in their endeavor to secure a foothold on the cars.

The greatest number probably assembled at Reed's Lake, the crowd being estimated at 4,000. On leaving the lake a great curiosity was manifested to see the new grounds fitted up by C. W. Johnston & Co., and the elegant place was soon over run with pleasure seekers.

The young and old, fastidious and otherwise were as thick on the beautiful green sward and in the buildings as flies around a molasses barrel. Everywhere that visited the place was delighted to add to their pleasure. Harry Wood and the New York concert company gave a performance that was simply immense.

The balloon ascension was one of the most thrilling ever witnessed, as Professor Wood ascended to a height of 5,000 feet, the wind sweeping him to its westerly direction toward the Masonic home, where he alighted in a large tree and narrowly escaped death. He was swept from his perch and fell a long distance, breaking his leg near the ankle. He was carried back to Johnston's pavilion and a doctor telephoned for who came hurriedly and soon reduced the fracture.

Public Contracts. The board of public works Saturday afternoon awarded contracts as follows: For the improvement of 81st street, from Fremont street to Lane avenue, to Rens & Vissler, $875.

Laying water mains in East Wealthy avenue, Cherry street, South East street and Washington avenue, to Jos. Owen, at the following rates: Eleven cents per foot for 4-inch pipe, 12 1/2 cents for 6-inch pipe, 15 1/2 cents for 8-inch pipe, and 23 cents for 12-inch pipe.

The following estimates were submitted: Improving North Coll avenue, Sweet street to Ninth street, $7,710; same to Gilbert street, Madison avenue to Valley City cemetery, $2,271; grading alley between South Division and Siving streets, from Island to Oakes street, $200; sewer in Park avenue, from Twenty-second to Fifth avenue, $106.60; improving Woodland and Kalamazoo avenues, Fifth avenue to Malheur avenue, $21,447.

The scheme has been on the tapis for some time, and by the new arrangement the brick and tile formerly operated by Brown, Clark & Co., Herbert Sprague & Co. and John Klassen at the head of Lyon street will be under one management.

THE THEATERS.

"The Barney Stone," an Irish comedy-drama, was produced at Reardon's opera house last night before a large audience. The play is not a dramatic treat, but is, on the whole, as cleverly constructed as the average popular Irish drama.

The play is not a dramatic treat, but is, on the whole, as cleverly constructed as the average popular Irish drama. The leading part, that of Tim Dooley, the true Irish lad, was taken by Albert Denier, who would create a more pleasant impression if he did not insist on addressing himself to the audience. It seems to be very hard to make some players understand that they are not making a stump speech when acting a part.

Every seat in the spacious auditorium of Hartman's hall has been sold, and standing room is eagerly purchased for the grand concert tonight. The Boston Symphony orchestra is America's representative musical organization, and the grand concert tonight, which will hear music tonight that cannot be excelled by any organization in the world.

The Kendaals in "The Iron Master," will probably be the last attraction of Powers' this season. The English players have established themselves in the hearts of Eastern theater patrons more than any other company that has preceded them with a few exceptions and their reputation here will undoubtedly be in the nature of an ovation.

Erna Kendaal, the droll comedienne will appear in "A Pair of Kids" at Powers' next Monday night. "A Pair of Kids" is one of the very successful far comedies that have been presented to the public and Erna Kendaal one of the few successful comedians look here this season.

A JOLLY TIME.

Valley City Lodge 124 K. of P., is a "dandy."

Valley City Lodge No. 124, Knights of Pythias, entertained about 100 guests at a progressive party at the hall of the bridge street Saturday night, and a jolly time was had. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable musical entertainment by Porter's orchestra, assisted by Mrs. Hall, Giddings, Huntley and Masters Warner and Richards.

The quartette club composed of Standard, Flindato, Osterle and Fasselst were several times recalled. Art Kroners' songs were immense. Knight Richard Warner's song, "Nancy the Twain" was very effective. The "Swedish Dialect" and other recitations by Mr. Place, Alex C. D. Burnham and others were "out of sight."

Julius A. J. Friedrich kindly donated a fine and grand piano for the occasion. Remarks by Knights Huntley, Dr. Patterson, Baldwin, Dr. McCall and others were very good.

The entertainment closing with the orchestra and a entire gathering. Fred Utley as toastmaster is right at home. Prize winners—First, M. S. Weaver; second, John E. Holmes; booby, E. Erickson.

THE MARSH WYROR.

The Deere Does Not Suit and it Will be Amended.

Like "Banquo's Ghost" the Marsh divorce case refuses to down, although the court some time ago ordered a final decree for the wife, the mother of a minor child, Blanche. The decree was granted on a stipulation whereby the father was to pay $100-permanency allowance, conditioned that the children choose for themselves which parent they rather live with.

The decree did not suit Mr. Marsh when a copy was forwarded to him, and it is said he refused to pay the alimony until the court ordered a decree in accordance with the terms of the stipulation.

Friday a petition was filed to amend the decree so that the minor child could choose for herself which parent she would live with, and upon reading the petition Judge Auld ordered an amended decree.

Behind the minor child there are two other daughters and the children are all at Lansing with their father. Mrs. Marsh is also visiting friends at the Capital City.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

The Holland Congregational Church Formally Opened.

The new Holland Congregational church on West Leonard street was dedicated yesterday morning. The event was a memorable one and a large crowd turned out in honor of the new church. Rev. J. W. Pook, the pastor, held dedicatory services at 10:30 in the Holland language and at 2:30 services were held in the English language.

At the A. M. E. church last evening memorial services to the late H. C. Bacon were held. The church was filled to its utmost capacity, and the audience, after the memorial services, were favored with an able talk by Mrs. Springer of Iowa upon the subject of "Home Missions."
