| Abstract         | Founded in 1896, the Grand Rapids Federation of Women's Clubs was an umbrella organization for affiliated local women's clubs. The Federation was intended to concentrate the efforts of the various clubs on joint projects for social improvement. The Federation was extremely active with Red Cross duties, especially during World War II. The Grand Rapids Arts Association had its inception in the Federation, and they were instrumental in the museum development project. This collection includes papers from the club, as well as from the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs and the General Federation of Women's Clubs, with which the Grand Rapids Federation was affiliated. The bulk of the collection consists of correspondence, minutes of meetings, financial-related papers and yearbooks from the 1920s-1950s. |

Biographical/Historical note

In 1896 a group of women led by Mrs. Loraine Pratt Immen conceived the idea for the Grand Rapids Federation of Women's Clubs (GRFWC), in order to conserve the energies of various existing clubs which had been expending aimless efforts for lack of concerted action. Mrs. Immen had visited the New York Federation of Women's Clubs and brought the concept back with her. On December 2, 1896, the first meeting was held at the home of Gertrude Newton, during which they developed the club objective to secure additional strength and united action when desired. Seven clubs were represented at that meeting: Alsbicc, Igdrasil, North End, Avon Shakespeare, Elocutionists, West Side Ladies Literary Club and East Side Ladies Literary Club. At the December 14th meeting five additional clubs were added which were Froebel, Equity, Ladies Literary, South End and Shakespeariana. Upon the GRFWC's fiftieth anniversary, ca. 1911, only the West Side Ladies Literary Club, the East Side Ladies Literary Club and the North End Club of the original group still belonged to the Federation.

The GRFWC joined the Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs in 1908 and the General Federation of Women's Clubs in 1914.

During their first fifty years, documented in the collection, the GRFWC undertook activities in four basic areas: children, civic, women and art. They were extremely active with Red Cross duties, especially during World War II. The Grand Rapids Arts Association had its inception in the GRFWC, and they were instrumental in the Museum Development project.

Series II. Minutes

Scope and Contents note

Minutes series (1914-1953, n.d.) contains numerous bound books of minutes from meetings of the GRFWC Assembly, President's Council, Advisory Council, Executive Board and Regular Meetings. The minutes of these various components of the GRFWC are interspersed and, therefore, are arranged loosely by date only. The series also includes one unidentified group of minutes contained in the Misc. folder. One oversized book of General Assembly minutes, 1936-37, has been separated and is located in, Box 13.

Note: See Coll. 275 for the Federation Board minutes from June 1906-Apr. 1914. It is unknown if the fact that these minutes were kept with the Ladies Literary Club records might suggest that different organizations had responsibility for the minutes during different time periods, and that other missing minutes of the Federation might be found with the documents of other womens organizations.
