Summary Information

Repository:	Grand Rapids History Center
Title:	Grand Rapids Public Library photograph collection
ID:	Collection 054
Date [inclusive]:	circa 1837-2011
Physical Description:	32 Linear Feet Approximately 60 boxes
Language of the Material:	English .
Abstract:	The Grand Rapids Public Library has been collecting photographs since the early 1920s. This is a devised collection of photographs focusing on the Grand Rapids (Mich.) area. The geographic scope is usually limited to Grand Rapids, Kent County and counties contiguous to Kent County. The collection contains a wide variety of images, including people, scenes and buildings. It is strong on Grand Rapids history, as well as lumbering, social activities and parades.

Biographical / Historical

The photos in this collection are originals and copies. In many cases, the source of the item has been lost, and along with that the potential for further identification of the image dates and content. Also, the source, and thus legal copyright, of many of the copied images is unknown. A series of accession numbers has been attached to this collection, but there was no attempt, at the time of original processing, to maintain the provenance with the individual item. Some of this information is being reclaimed with research within the accession records, but much of this information is lost.

The photos in this collection have been acquired and managed by a succession of people and departments in the Library through the years. As with other Archives throughout the country, accession documentation procedures, copy procedures, handling, housing and other photo management procedures, have improved over time.

Because of extensive copying and recopying of originals over the years, many of the images in this collection duplicate those in other collections currently in both the library and Grand Rapids Public Museum. Generally it is not possible to tell which image is closer to the original.

Scope and Contents

Photographs have been collected by the Grand Rapids Public Library since the early 1920s. Geographic scope for the bulk of the collection is Grand Rapids. There is some coverage of Kent County and the surrounding area. A few family photos may include other locations.

The collection contains a wide variety of images. It is strong on Grand Rapids history, as well as lumbering, social activities and parades. There are many unique images in this collection, but there is some overlap with other archival collections and/or published sources.

Scope and Contents

1. Interior view, July 28, 1906. 2005.051. Believed to be either George W. Payne's shop at 97 Monroe, suggested by Payne's presence in the image, or Clarence W. Hazel's shop at 109 Monroe. The evidence for the later is the 1906 City Directory, which lists D.C. Elliott as being employed by Hazel, not Payne. However, Elliott may have changed positions within the year. DeWitt Clinton Elliott is not listed in the 1907 directory at all, Payne's establishment is not listed, and Hazel has moved his shop to the Ashton Building. In 1910, Elliott is listed as working for Payne at 91 Monroe near the Morton House at 93 Monroe, with Hazel still in the Ashton Building. L-R in image are: Plez Weekly (African American porter), D.C. Elliott (copied from his family's original), J.W. Riley, E. Hickman, E.E. Geeck, J.S. Hodgeman, Emmet Grant

(African American porter?), G.W. Payne (owner?), E. Barnhardt, Wm. Honicker and Henrietta Sonnema.

General

This folder contains both original photographs and also copy photos, sometimes of the same images as an original, but often copy photo for which the original may not be held, or may be in a different archival collection. Two photographic reproductions on board of the Booth 1831 illustration, showing the Baptist Mission the Native Americans in the foreground, and Campau's trading post (the three buildings center right). Both are labeled with the title "Grand Rapids in 1831", and have the "Booth" name lower right.

Scope and Contents

[.1] Has name of Mrs. T.H. Gilbert & sticker for Mrs. J. Langdon McKee on verso. [.2] Verso notes: Gillette(?) Studio (Gillette name partially missing). "Compliments of Isobel Nelson Bla? ... daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ezra T. Nelson, 1936." [.3, .4] Two contact prints of the Booth illustration "Campau Trading Post" [.5] Guild House. Early photo reproduction. 5X7, cracked horizontally about a quarter from the top of the board. "Grand Rapids as It Was" label added to verso at later date. [.6] Reproduction with the contemporary "Grand Rapids As It Was" label on the verso. View from Island #1. Wigwam, Guild House (first frame house, 1833), Campau's Fur Storage House. Guild House. Two later photoprints, with Dec. 1, 1921 notes by C.H. On the back. [.7] Verso has later hand drawn illustration of the Grand River, and the street layout at the time of the illustration, with a typed note of the image landmarks and later sites. Campau's warehouse is listed as near the rear of the later Charles Trankla & Co. store. The river is given as up to the corner of Pearl St. & Monroe Ave. [.8] Same image, and with the typed landmark descriptions, but without the map. [.9] Guild House by Turner. Later photo print of his illustration. Turner signature lower right in the image. This version has the Guild House with a canoe in front and Campau Storage building right, with another canoe in front, but the Native American Tepee is missing from this version. . [.10] Historical photo (8x10), perhaps from Thomas glass negatives. Believed to be John Ball Park, with a view to the distance horizon. Walkway & pond in foreground with people and horse drawn wagons. Various houses in the background, and a road curving around from center left across the center of the image. [.11] View of Grand Rapids from John Ball Park, small print (4x5). Mostly trees and sky. [.12] Earlier view. Copy photo print reproduction of a drawing, with men driving cattle along a path with split rail fences either side, and many houses in the background. [.13] 1872/1873 historical photo print. "From Central School, Looking South West" handwritten a bottom of board. View west toward the Grand River in the background. Two churches, houses, and other buildings. The two tower just visible center right are probably St. Mark's Church at the end of Pearl St. [.14, .15, .16] 1873 view looking southwest toward Grand River, with several bridges. Numerous buildings on the West side of the river. View looking down hill with sloping ground in the foreground, and a fence at the bottom before the houses start. . Three copy prints of Neg. 98, 771. [.17, .18] Two copy prints of Johnson #12. View down hill of houses toward factory on the Grand River. [.19] One copy print of Johnson #1 or #15. Park Church left, near Fulton St. Park. Fountain St. Baptist right. Fountain Street moving up the hill near the foreground. Future sight of the Grand Rapids Public Library in place of the various houses seen on the far side of Fountain St. in this illustration. [.20] One copy print of Johnson #8. [.21] One copy print of Johnson #16. Park Church, with Fulton St. Park center right in image. [.22] One copy print of Johnson #24

Image shows a corner view of a two story building with a small balcony at the dormer over the entrance. A sign to the left of the entrance has "undertaker" at the top. Appears to be a stone building, perhaps from the Grand River. Sign on the two story building at the left includes "service station" and "tube". Three/four story autos near it. Streets are brick with several trolley tracks. Electric light on the corner near the house has cluster globes, and a utility pole is to the left.

Dr. Shepard's House on Ottawa St. corner of Pearl. "House on corner was old water works office"--perhaps refers to the building in the left background. Street in front of the house. There are several levels of stairs up to the porches & doors of the house, and another building lower right, which might also be the old water works.	Box 14	Folder 1
Corner of Sheldon & Island or Sheldon & Wester? Said to be later the Medical Arts Building site. Corner view	Box 14	Folder 1

General

Appears to be the same house as in image above, now viewed from the left instead of the right. The oriole window with the round window above it at the roof line dormer is the same as in the view above, and the line of the front porch appears to match. There is no fence in this view. A gazebo is in the yard left. There is a street light across the dirt street with a single lantern. Spring or fall trees provide a view to other buildings at right, an right background, including a couple of church steeples.

F.S. Rutherford House on Sheldon, north of the Ladies Literary Club, and perhaps just north of the building which used to house the YWCA.	Box 14	Folder 1

General

Note on the verso suggests that the house was moved to this location (from Almy & Williams Sts. by Thomas W. Porter, contract. Note states that Sophie & Louis Campau lived in the house for a short time, and dies there. Sept. 17, 1921. Image shows an overgrow yard in front of a plain Italianate house with a building partially visible to the left which may be the LLC or another women's building on Sheldon.

Putnam Homestead. "Isabella Home". Oct. 1914. A corner view of the house hidden behind a tree left and other foliage. Vines on the house. An awning covers the entrance steps at left, and an enclosed porch stands out from the main house at right.	Box 14	Folder 1

Darwin D. Cody House, old 47 Park, now 111 Library St.	Box 14	Folder 1

General

[Needs further verification] Compare with images and names associated with the other houses said to have been on the Library site. "Cody" on stone at the curb. A round porch with awnings at right is full of people. Awnings on the first and second floor of the windows of the main entrance. Decorative iron fence surrounding the year. Side of another house just visible at left.

John Martin House. 515 Madison Ave. Martin family still owner in 1960's. "Hugo Rathbone"--verso note.	Box 14	Folder 1

Large building, snow scene, identified as the site of Hillmount Apartments.	Box 14	Folder 1
Photo postcard, mailed from Chicago to 184 Clinton St. House has a large wrap around porch which is elevated, with small windows below it. Appears to be a tower. People on the porch.	Box 14	Folder 1

General

A corner pillar with a knob on top marks the entrance to the drive on the left, as well as the joining of two sides of the fence. A matching pillar is seen in the lower right on the opposite side of the drive. A man leans on the fence on the drive side, at left. A tree is center left just past the corner pillar. A carriage with two horses is in the drive, with a couple seated inside, and a man standing behind the carriage in the drive. Another horse is seen in the drive in the background. Three woman stand in the yard left. Cross & Weller, photographers. 1999.059

Oct. 1864, also said to possibly have been on the site of the GRPL. Possibly LaGrave & Fulton, which would not be the GRPL site.

General

Image shows four men standing on either side of a center aisle, some leaning on the glass front counter-high cases. Shows the stock in the cases and on the walls behind. A display in the center of the aisle has a sign "25 & 40 Watt lamps. . . C.H. Kutsche, Jr., of the local Kutsche family, has identified the following (5/12/2009):

View: Taken from mezzanine office toward the street (Monroe Ave.)

Date: 1918

In the mid-1920's cabinets were moved to center of store, wall shelves carried down stairs.

Man standing at right, in shirt sleeves, leaning on the counter is Jack Pelon(?), a very long-time clerk, then just out of the U.S. Army (W.W.I).

Men in background with caps CHK thinks are customers.

General

Notice the seating-height stones and the cap stones outlining the property where the digging is in progress. It is probable that City Hall is still standing, and just out of view to the left, since the stones outlining the Old City Hall yard have not yet been disturb. The hill in the background suggests this is the Lyon St. side of the Old City Hall yard. The parking garage right in the image is on the sw corner of Ionia & Lyon with the then U.S. Post Office, later Grand Rapids Art Museum, across Ionia St. This makes the building behind the bulldozer the Association of Commerce Building. The building in the background may be a Grand Rapids Junior College Building on Bostwick or Ransom.

Pantlind Hotel, North Monroe (Canal St.) & Pearl St.

General

The Pantlind Hotel, also called Hotel Pantlind, and later the Amway Grande, is located in the historical heart of Grand Rapids in Campau Square, and is a landmark in many of the images throughout this collection. A key work search on "Pantlind" throughout this document will yield many other images of this building and its surrounds.

General

These items depict the area near the "Arcade" with an address range of perhaps 123-139 + Pearl. However, the identifications on the images are not all together correct. Most of the images were taken in 1979, with several showing a portion of the Terry House Cafeteria, at (137)-139 Rood Building. However, these are identified as the old Midtown Theatre/Power Opera House Building, which was actually at 123-125 Pearl. The Arcade, during this time period, is given as between address 123 and 135, although it appears to be shown in the building next to the Terry House/Rood Building in the 1979 image.

Water Reservoir Break

Water Reservoir Break. July 2, 1900 Set of 14 images, 1989.031 (14)

Biographical / Historical

Small b/w photos mounted on gray boards. This set includes a type historical note on a sheet of paper about the same size as the photos, signed by Frank V. Smith, former City Treasurer. The note states that this structure was called the old Livingston Reservoir, and that there was a break through the dike wall of the reservoir on the East side, flooding the hillside east of Belknap Park, starting at 5 am. The water drained into Coldbrook Creek and then into the Grand River.

Cooley family

General

(15 listed 5/2000. 15 items, but 19 photos found 7/14/2008; one item has 5 images + 1 = 16 items; 20 photos 7/14/2008)

From markings on the existing images, it appears that staff previously assumed that all 19 images came from a Mrs. Cooley ca, Sept. 1926. However, all items are not marked the same.

Title/Description	Instances
1. Photo postcard. Large group of men beside a building. One lying on the ground in front appears to have a baseball bat.	Box 24	Folder 39
2. Two young couples seated in an early 20th century auto. "Elwood", "Marion", Kendally." and "Goshen?" banners attached to side of car. Photo postcard. "ME" handwritten above the woman in the front seat. "Mrs. Cooley", August 12, 1914, Elwood fair"--handwritten on the message side.	Box 24	Folder 39
3. Photo postcard, trimmed. "Miss Margaret Cooley. . . Detroit", handwritten on the message side. Shows a young woman seated with roses.	Box 24	Folder 39

4. Portrait photo of a young woman in a school uniform. "Roth" photographer. Received date is Sept. 28, 1926. Which may be true for the bulk of the images, if they are, in fact, all from the "Cooley Family".	Box 24	Folder 39
5. Young woman in a coat with fur collar, and wearing a hat. 20th century.	Box 24	Folder 39
6. Woman between a girl left in a plaid blouse with a large bow in her hair and a boy right. "From Mrs. Cooley. . . Mr. Hooper ." verso. Horizontal oval orientation mounted on brown textured board.	Box 24	Folder 39
7. Two children standing on a plank sidewalk beside a house (?). Boy left has a bat(?), gift right has a doll.	Box 24	Folder 39
8-12. Beige paper frame with horizontal orientation, and five small oval portrait photos.	Box 24	Folder 39
8. Two women	Box 24	Folder 39

Lange, Elsie Buchholz group photograph, 1910s	Box 56

Biographical / Historical

Photograph was left by Elsie, nee Buchholz, Lange (1883-1994) in her home at 264 Griswold SE, Grand Rapids when she sold it in the early 1980s. She grew up in Douglass Township, Montcalm County, Michigan and moved to Grand Rapids to work as a domestic servant when she was a teenager. She married William Charles Lange (1882-1951) in 1913. Based on research and information provided by the donor, this photograph is likely a Lutheran confirmation class in Montcalm County, taken in the 1910s.

General

There are three Frank Proctors listed in the 1907 city directory. One is a well driver, one a manager for Mengel & Brothers Co., and one a draftsman for Williamson & Crow. Given the Grand Rapids National Bank image included with this collection, at least one of the Franks, if all are from this same family, may be associated with these images. 8 men & 1 woman in or around an early auto, ca. 1907?, near a building left, near a factory with freight cars for the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad in the background. The young fellow in the front seat nearest the camera was identified by the donor as Frank Proctor. Verso stamp: J.H. Packer, State View Photographer, Room 34, Porter Blk, G.R. Neg. 4231.
