Summary Information

Repository:	Grand Rapids History Center
Title:	Grand Rapids Public Library furniture industry collection
ID:	Collection 233
Date:	no date
Physical Description:	68.5 Linear Feet
Language of the Material:	English .
Abstract:	This is a devised collection that brings together miscellaneous small and unknown accessions related to the Grand Rapids furniture industry. The collection includes photographs, drawings, graphic clippings, ephemera and other material. Some items relating to Michigan furniture companies are also included.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Scope and Contents

This collection was created in 1999 to house the fragments and small accessions within the archives that relate to the furniture industry in Grand Rapids. Information on non-Grand Rapids furniture companies is not actively collected, though some national material can be found in Collection #335, Furniture Design Archival Collection, National Literature. The other complimentary collection with a national focus is the Furniture Design Book Collection, which is housed in its own room within the Grand Rapids History & Special Collections department.

 American pattern : Grand Rapids, like many U.S. Towns, was built by eager young pioneers, the homesteaders whose sons today still carve our traditions. A section called "Middle Western Houses of the 19th Century" includes sketches believed to be by Ernest Walker, of the following houses: Philips House, owned by Mr. & Mrs. L.O. Duncan in 1943; Turner House doorway only; Robert W. Irwin House; Kirkpatrick House [stone Gothic]; L.T. Wilmarth House; Grand Rapids Art Gallery Hudson Valley style house.

Title/Description	Instances
1 white 3-ringed binder filled with plastic sheet protector pages of visual information on mostly unidentified furniture, from unidentified sources. P2003.027d	Box 30

General

The first section includes trade images (line drawings), with images of a corresponding actual items of furniture, for the Jacques Grange Collection, John Widdicomb Co. The binder contains a lot of color photos, but there appear to be mostly copy work from a printed source, though a few show the item in a real time setting. A few 35 mm negative are also found in the notebook. Other material includes color laser copies, items cut from trade literature, other trade literature formats, adapted for the notebook. The creator of the notebook is unknown, and only a few items include written descriptions or source clues.
