Biographical / Historical

Born in St. Petersburg, Russia, Zane (Zanon) Burniewicz (1901-1977) was a Lithuanian immigrant who built a successful business as a photographer in Grand Rapids, MI. The son of a photographer, Zane came to the United States as a young boy, along with his father Alexander and brother Veto. It was there in Grand Rapids that Zane would meet his wife Harriet Pruss, whom he married on April 17, 1922.

Beginning his photography career with his father and other studios, Zane later opened one of his own, the Zane Studio, at 511 Leonard NW in 1933. Known primarily for its wedding photography, the Zane studio was run with the help of family members, including Harriet, who often worked as a receptionist. Harriet also helped with photographing the brides, one of whom would be featured each month in a large display at the studio.

In addition to wedding photography, the Zane Studio also took images of first communions at St. Alphonsus, where Zane and Harriet were members. Outside of church, Zane and Harriet were also active members of Grand Rapids' civic life. Harriet was a participating member of the Ladies Literary Club, West Side Literary Club, and a founding member of the Welcome

Home of the Blind. Zane was a charting member of Grand Rapids' chapter of the Civitan Club, where he and others promoted civic service and youth development.

Scope and Contents

The collection consists primarily of negatives, which are often accompanied by a print. Mostly wedding portraits, these images have been foldered alphabetically by the clients name, along with any date information that was available. The collection is not a comprehensive body of the Zane Studio's work, but rather a portion of it that has survived and has been donated to the library.
